

I'm thinking about it. I may leave it alone, but I won't bother it right now because I'm not sure just what to do.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on the committee amendment? If not, the motion is to adopt the committee amendments. All those in favor vote yes, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: The committee amendments are adopted. Senator DeCamp, you want to take the bill?

SENATOR DECAMP: Yes, move it.

PKESIDENT: Motion is to advance the bill. Is there further discussion on the bill? Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Would Senator DeCamp yield to a question?

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp is on hand.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Mr. President, could you tell me how much time we've used up on this bill so far?

PRESIDENT: Five minutes and 30 seconds.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Left?

PRESIDENT: Have expired.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Have expired. Senator DeCamp, what does the bill do?

SENATOR DECAMP: The bill clarifies that if somebody physically walks in, for example, to the courthouse or the Secretary of State's office, they can check records without having to pay, except in the Secretary of State's office they would pay above ten checks, they would pay the amount of $1.00. The origin of the bill was the Lancaster County, I believe it was Clerks' Office. An individual from Lincoln, a citizen, went in there and they were charging him $1.00 for every check he made and he felt that was unconstitutional. He went to us and other people interested in this subject, particularly the people involved in the UCC and the Filing Council. They, basically, agreed with him
